Meet our Distinguished Faculty

Michael Levine, PhD, FAED
Emeritus Professor of Psychology at Kenyon College. In the field of eating disorders, his research, writing, and activism focuses on sociocultural risk factors and prevention. He has authored, co-authored, or co-edited five books, including Preventing Eating Related and Weight Related Disorders: Collaborative Research, Advocacy and Policy Change.

Edward Tyson, MD, CEDS
Dr. Tyson has been specializing in eating disorder treatment for over 25 years. He is co-author of the AED's Medical Guide for Eating Disorders and authored the chapter on medical assessment for "Eating Disorders—Bridging the Research-Practice Gap". Advocacy is a priority and he has worked to develop legislation to mandate insurance coverage for EDs in Texas. He is a member of the AED’s Advisory Board and the Binge Eating Disorder Association and he also teaches medical, nursing, graduate and undergraduates at the University of Texas.

Ann Kearney-Cooke, PhD
Dr. Kearney-Cooke is a New York Times bestselling author, psychologist and researcher who specializes in wellness. She was named a Distinguished Scholar at the Partnership for Gender Specific Medicine at Columbia University for the development of the Helping Girls Become Strong Woman project. She was the recipient of the National Eating Disorders Association 2012 Craig Johnson Award for Clinical Practice and Training. She has been an expert on national television shows including the Oprah Winfrey Show, the Today Show, Good Morning America and CNN.

Megan Ross, LPC, R-DMT, GL-CMA
Director of Program Development and Trauma Awareness for Timbrelle Knolls, Megan supports the needs of residents by developing programming in alignment with the evolutions of neuroscience, process addictions, trauma recovery, expressive modalities, and critical, humanist psychology while promoting the embodiment process for both resident and staff. She develops, trains and upholds a campus-wide integrative approach to the recovery process. Megan is currently pursuing her Doctorate in International Trauma Psychology.

Chase Bannister, MDIV, MSW, LCSW, CEDS
Chase is Founder, Senior Vice President, and Chief Strategy & Clinical Integrity Officer of Veritas Collaborative, a specialty hospital for the treatment of eating disorders. He is a national leader in the field of research focused on constituency-building and practice ethics, Chase carries an unmissable zeal for advancing public awareness of eating disorder prevention, best-practice treatment, and sustainable recovery.

Michael Strober, PhD
Dr. Strober is the Resnick Family Endowed Chair in Eating Disorders and Professor of Psychiatry, David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA. He is internationally recognized not only for his studies on genetic influences and psychopathology in eating disorders, but also for his translational implications of research for design and conduct of treatment, including psychotherapy.

Pamela Peeke, MD, MPH, FACP
Dr. Pamela Peeke is an internationally renowned physician and expert in the field of metabolism. She is a Pew Foundation Scholar in Nutrition and Metabolism, Assistant Professor of Medicine at the University of Maryland and Fellow of the American College of Physicians. Dr. Peeke is Senior Science Advisor to Elements Behavioral Health.

Gregory Jantz, PhD, CEDS
Dr. Jantz is a best-selling author of 28 books, including Hope, Help and Healing for Eating Disorders. He is a go-to media source expert for a range of behavior-based afflictions, as well as drug and alcohol addictions. Dr. Jantz has appeared on CNN, FOX, ABC, CBS, and has been interviewed by the Oprah Winfrey Press, Family Circle, and Women’s Day. He is also a regular contributor to The Huffington Post and Psychology Today blogs. Dr. Jantz founded The Center, A Place of HOPE to help people transform their lives.

Amy Baker-Dennis, PhD, FAED, FACT
A researcher, educator, author and clinical psychologist. In clinical practice for four decades, specializing in ED since 1977. She is a Founding Fellow of the Academy for Eating Disorders (AED), Founding member of the Eating Disorder Research Society, Founding member of the National Eating Disorder Association (NEDA), Founding Fellow/Diplomate of the Academy of Cognitive Therapy and a Certified Cognitive Therapist. Her most recent book, is entitled Eating Disorders, Addictions and Substance Use Disorders: Clinical, Research and Treatment Perspectives.

Jessica Setnick, MS, RD, CEDRD
Founder of Eating Disorders Boot Camp, and Senior Fellow at Remuda Ranch Eating Disorder Treatment Program, Jessica is the author of The Eating Disorders Clinical Pocket Guide and the Eating Disorders Boot Camp Professional Training Workshop series. She is known for her straightforward approach to educating health professionals and the public about eating disorders and the connections between mental health and nutrition.

Mark Schwartz, Sc.D
Dr. Schwartz earned his doctorate in Psychology and Mental Health from Johns Hopkins University. Over the past 30 years, Dr. Schwartz has achieved international recognition for his contributions in a variety of clinical arenas, including the treatment of intimacy disorders, marital and sexual dysfunction, sexual compulsivity, sexual trauma and eating disorders. He has authored numerous articles and book chapters. Author of Sexual Abuse and Eating Disorders, Sexual Compulsive Behavior, and Sex and Gender.
Intermediate to Advanced Clinical Training for Therapists and Counselors

Program Focus & Goals
Ben Franklin Institute, producer of The Summit for Clinical Excellence Conference is the premier provider of continuing education for behavioral health, mental health and addiction professionals. We bring together the best and brightest trainers from many disciplines offering a broader perspective; to help our therapists and counselors better address the issues that their client is facing day to day.

Conference Objectives:
1. To identify current evidence-based specific diagnostic and treatment approaches, counseling skills and modalities that will be successfully applied to the fields of mental health, behavioral health and addictive disorders; including but not limited to: Trauma and Eating Disorders, Treating Eating Disorders, Substance Abuse and Eating Disorders, DSM-5 Changes, Bulimia, Anorexia and Genetics.
2. To identify the symptoms and characteristics of the disorders mentioned in objective #1 and how they have interfered with the clients’ interpersonal and family relationships. To participate in skill building workshops and unique trainings that offer cognitive and experiential clinical techniques; to assist in patient/client recovery from these listed disorders.
